The American Statistical Association (ASA) and the Caucus for Women in Statistics (CWS) are pleased to host the fourth annual Florence Nightingale Day.

What:
A celebration of women in statistics and data science!
Join us for Florence Nightingale Day to discover the opportunities for careers in statistics and data science, to do activities with data, and to develop connections.

Who:
Dallas-Fort Worth region
8th -12th grade students

When:
October 23, 2021 (10 am - 2:00 pm CT)

Where:
Held Online
See our FN Day 2021 webpage.

Women and underrepresented groups are particularly encouraged to participate.

For more information and registration:
https://fndaystats.org